4. Following a review of Constituency Boundaries by the Parliamentary Boundary Commission, there is a change to our local Association boundary and as such the DCCA will no longer exist at the next General Election. This meeting is for the members to agree to the dissolution of Devizes Constituency Conservative Association (DCCA). In accordance with this the following motion is proposed –

This SGM proposes that the DCCA will be closed immediately – except for the transfer of bank accounts, signatures, relevant contracts and final payment of bills, as well as winding up any other outstanding issues, which will be done forthwith. Branches will be transferred to the new Associations and DCCA funds will be split according to CCHQ Rules.
